TODDLER TALK

Together we'll help your child's language BLOOM!

Is your toddler not talking? Not using their words when they want something? Together we will help you learn strategies for building functional language and communication skills through modeling and play-based instruction in a small group.

Engage in activities with your child as we facilitate communication and coach you in a language-rich environment. Build your confidence as a "communication coach" to reduce your child's frustration and build their confidence! Together we'll help your child BLOOM!

This 6 week program is designed specifically for 18 month - 2 year old learners

We will expand on current communication abilities to:

- Help your child communicate wants & needs effectively
- Reduce interfering behaviors due to limited communication skills
